Choice Hotels International today announced that Michael DeSantis, senior vice president and senior strategic advisor, is leaving the company and will pursue other professional opportunities.

Mr. DeSantis joined the company in 1996, and served as senior vice president, general counsel and secretary from 1997 to 2006. In 2006, he was named to his current position, primarily focusing his attention on the company's corporate and real estate development group in support of the upscale and extended stay brands division.

"I'd like to thank Michael for his contributions to Choice and wish him well in his future endeavors," said Charles A. Ledsinger, Jr., vice chairman and CEO. "Over the past decade, in addition to being Choice's senior legal officer, Michael contributed to many of the key business initiatives driving the company's performance, including most recently the launch and growth of Cambria Suites," added Ledsinger.

DeSantis' responsibilities will be assumed by other Choice executives.

"Choice Hotels is optimally positioned financially, strategically, and organizationally to maintain its position of industry strength and achieve our growth targets for 2007 and beyond," said Ledsinger.
