SILVER SPRING, Md.

Given the success of Choice Hotels' spring promotion campaign, the company is offering travelers another extraordinary opportunity to qualify for a free night's lodging after every two separate stays at any Comfort Inn, Comfort Suites, Quality, Sleep Inn, Clarion or MainStay Suites brand hotel in the U.S. this fall.

To participate in this promotion, which launches September 1 and ends December 31, 2004 guests must be members of the Choice Privileges guest rewards program. Members who stay on two separate occasions at any midscale Choice Hotels' brand in the U.S. will receive a minimum of 5,000 bonus points. Along with the points earned from the original two qualifying stays, the bonus will give members enough points to redeem for a free night on a future stay at most midscale Choice brand hotels throughout the U.S. There is no limit on the number of times travelers can earn free nights during the promotion.

"Our 'Stay 2 Times. Earn a Free Night' promotion has proven to be a compelling value for business and leisure travelers," said Wayne Wielgus, senior vice president, marketing for Choice Hotels. "By offering this exceptional program to travelers again this fall we're giving them the value added programs that they have come to expect from Choice Hotels."

With a Choice Privileges Visa Platinum credit card, travelers can earn free nights even faster. Every time and everywhere travelers use their Choice Privileges Visa card, they will earn additional Choice Privileges points. In addition to redeeming points for room nights, Choice Privileges members may use their points toward gift certificates from more than 100 national and 400 regional retailers and restaurants. The Choice Privileges rewards program also offers members special benefits such as express reservations, express check-in, complimentary room upgrade (upon availability), free local phone calls and incoming faxes, complimentary newspaper and extended check-out.
