"Being recognized as the best really validates all the hard work and creativity we have put into this program," said Gregory Brown, vice president, Choice Privileges for Choice Hotels.

The prestigious Freddie Awards are announced each year by Randy Peterson, publisher of Inside Flyer magazine. This year's award winners were announced at the Freddie Awards ceremony held on April 26, 2007 in Arlington, Virginia. Each year frequent travelers around the world voted for their favorite airline, hotel and credit card loyalty programs.

"We have been in the process of enhancing the Choice Privileges rewards program and winning the Freddie Award is the first recognition of the positive changes we have been making," added Brown "We will further enhance Choice Privileges by launching a new identity that is fresh and contemporary along with building new partnerships and expanding our global reach."

Last week at Choice Hotels 53rd Annual Convention, Choice Privileges announced several new additions to the rewards program including the launch of the Choice Privileges program in Ireland, the addition of Choice's Suburban Extended Stay Hotel brand to the Choice Privileges program, and a trio of new participating redemption partners--Amtrak, the American Association of Retired Persons (AARP), and Enterprise-Rent-A-Car.

Over 5.5 million Choice Privileges members earn points on stays at over 3,000 Comfort Inn, Comfort Suites, Quality Inn, Sleep Inn, Clarion, Cambria Suites, MainStay Suites and Suburban Extended Stay Hotel locations throughout the U.S., Canada, Ireland, Mexico and the Caribbean. Points can be redeemed for room nights, Airline Rewards, charitable donations or gift certificates from more than 100 national and 400 regional retailers and restaurants. The Choice Privileges rewards program also offers members special benefits such as express reservations, express check-in, free local phone calls and incoming faxes, complimentary newspapers and extended check-out.
