The event is held each year in the city of the Big Game to help revitalize communities. Choice Hotels' associates and franchisees donated their time working side by side with former and current professional football players and other volunteers to help rehabilitate seven homes in Miami as part of this year's effort in historic Coconut Grove.

In 2009, Choice Hotels International, Inc. made a multi-year commitment of $1.5 million and since September 11, 2009, has completed 21 projects across the country, with more than 700 volunteers contributing more than 5,000 hours toward the effort.
