

WoodSpring Suites Expands Presence in Charlotte with Two New Hotels

ROCKVILLE, Md., July 27, 2018 /PRNewswire/ -- Choice Hotels International, Inc. (NYSE: CHH), one of the world's largest hotel companies, in collaboration with Brookwood Hotels and Nationwide Hotel Management Company, opened the WoodSpring Suites Charlotte Northlake and WoodSpring Suites Charlotte Matthews. The properties are located at 9420 Statesville Road in Charlotte, N.C. and 1424 Matthews-Mint Hill Road in Matthews, N.C., respectively, and are poised to benefit from the region's increasing growth, employment and business opportunities.

"Charlotte is the largest city in the Carolinas and home to some of the country's most distinguished financial institutions, medical centers, and universities, each of which generates a healthy demand for extended stay accommodations," said Ron Burgett, vice president, franchise development, WoodSpring Suites, Choice Hotels. "Our collaboration with Brookwood Hotels continues to grow with the opening of these properties, and we cannot wait for guests to experience these hotels and the essential amenities the brand offers."

Both new four-story, 122-room properties are within driving distance to downtown Charlotte, the Charlotte Douglas International Airport and several other corporations and attractions including, the Bank of America Financial Center, Duke Energy, NASCAR, Microsoft, Sonic Automotive, and Wells Fargo corporate offices. In addition, both hotels include a mix of queen and king size beds, an in-room kitchen equipped with a full-size refrigerator, an expanded lobby with coffee station, a fitness center with 24/7 access, 100-percent smoke free premises, free parking, complimentary guest Wi-Fi, and 24/7 guest laundry.

"Charlotte is one of the fastest growing cities in the nation, attracting a diverse and talented labor pool and new business sectors, making it the ideal location to open multiple WoodSpring properties," said Darien Wright, chief operating officer, Brookwood Hotels. "We believe in the WoodSpring Suites product, and these two hotels expand our footprint into the largest city in the state of North Carolina."
