

Choice Hotels Continues Comfort Transformation

More than One Quarter of U.S. Comfort Hotels in the Process of Obtaining New Signage

ROCKVILLE, Md., Sept. 25, 2018 /PRNewswire/ -- After unveiling a new logo for Choice Hotels International, Inc.'s (NYSE: CHH) flagship brand in May, the Comfort brands' transformation journey continues to advance. More than 450 hotels in the U.S. Comfort brand portfolio are in the process of obtaining new brand signage and completing renovations to guest rooms and common areas for an overall refreshed look and feel.

"We have focused on the guest from day one of this journey, and we are working diligently to bring a modern and lasting guest experience to all of our Comfort hotels," said Anne Smith, vice president, brand management and design at Choice Hotels. "The new logo signals change and welcomes travelers to experience the new Comfort. We continue to receive tremendous guest feedback – the future of the Comfort brand is bright."

The transformation began in 2012 and incorporated the Move to Modern initiative, which includes system-wide upgrades. All U.S. Comfort hotels are required to meet the Move to Modern standards by the end of 2019 and guests can expect to see the new signage by the end of 2020. In total, Choice Hotels and its franchisees will have invested $2.5 billion to deliver a more consistent, up-to-date guest experience, including:

- Refreshed lobbies and public spaces to provide more common areas for relaxing, working and gathering.
- Updated guest rooms with premium quality pillows, mattresses, and bedding.
- 100-percent smoke-free properties, making Comfort the largest smoke-free hotel brand in North America.

The Comfort brands' growth continues to accelerate with recent openings in primary markets, such as Asheville, N.C., Dallas, and Austin, Texas. The pipeline is nearly 300 hotels, 80-percent of which are new construction, and Choice has recently secured franchise agreements in Brooklyn, N.Y., Charlotte, N.C., and Phoenix.

"The Comfort brands' transformation strengthens its position as a leader in the upper midscale hotel segment. The investment made is driving increased developer interest and continued growth," said Brian Quinn, head of development, new construction brands, Choice Hotels. "The brand's rapid expansion is a testament to our commitment, expertise in the segment, and strong value proposition. We look forward to bringing the new Comfort to even more markets and continuing to stake our claim in the segment."
