

WoodSpring Continues Westward Growth With Two California Openings

ROCKVILLE, Md., Feb. 10, 2020 /PRNewswire/ -- WoodSpring Suites, an extended stay hotel franchised by Choice Hotels International, Inc. (NYSE: CHH), continues to capitalize on development opportunities in the Western U.S. with two new hotel openings in California: the WoodSpring Suites Riverside-Corona-Norco and the WoodSpring Suites Redlands San Bernardino.

"We're thrilled to expand our extended stay footprint to a pair of popular markets in Southern California," said Anna Scozzafava, vice president of brand strategy and operations, extended stay, Choice Hotels. "WoodSpring remains one of Choice Hotels' fastest growing brands at a time when the segment continues to outperform the overall lodging industry. Developers are realizing that now is the time to invest in extended stay, and these two openings underscore the WoodSpring brand's appeal to investors with long-term horizons."

"There is strong demand for affordable extended stay properties in southern California, and WoodSpring fits the bill for prospective developers looking to expand in the West," said Ron Burgett, senior vice president franchise development, extended stay, Choice Hotels. "WoodSpring's lean operating model helps enable maximum efficiency for owners so they can focus on the bottom line."

WoodSpring Suites Riverside-Corona-Norco

The four-floor, 122-room hotel is located off Interstate 15 at 3265 Hamner Ave., with easy access to Ontario Airport and neighboring cities like Anaheim, Los Angeles, Santa Ana and Rancho Cucamonga. The Naval Surface Warfare Center has a large office just a few blocks from the hotel, and major area employers — including Monster Energy, Corona Regional Medical Center, the City of Corona, and Kaiser Permanente — are nearby as well. Norco, one of the country's premier horse-riding destinations, draws thousands of annual visitors to the George Ingalls Equestrian Event Center.

WoodSpring Suites Redlands San Bernardino

Located at 1700 Orange Tree Lane in Redlands, this four-floor, 122-room hotel is close to San Bernardino International Airport, Loma Linda University & Medical Center, the Environmental Systems Research Institute and warehouses for top retailers, including Amazon and Kohl's. Leisure travelers are close to Splash Kingdom Waterpark, Escape Craft Brewery and the many attractions of Historic Downtown Redlands.

Both hotels are purpose-built for the unique needs of extended stay travelers and offer the following features:

- Multiple suite layouts — all of which are 100% smoke free and equipped with an in-room kitchen featuring a full-size refrigerator, microwave and cooktop.
- Expanded lobby with a coffee station.
- Free Wi-Fi and guest parking.
- 24-hour fitness center.
- Guest laundry room.
- Pet-friendly accommodations.

The WoodSpring Suites Riverside-Corona-Norco and the WoodSpring Suites Redlands San Bernardino were developed by Brookwood Hotels, which has a portfolio of more than 110

WoodSpring Suites hotels throughout the country. The hotels are managed by Nationwide Hotel Management Company.

"Our continued development and trusted relationship with Choice Hotels makes these new hotels in the Inland Empire another welcome addition to our portfolio," said Darien Wright, Chief Operating Officer, Brookwood Hotels. "We're pleased to bring an affordable, extended stay lodging option to travelers in the SoCal region."
