

Choice Hotels' New Advertising Campaign Welcomes Guests As They Hit The Road Again

Broadcast and Digital Ads Feature Familiar Destinations Along Highways and Byways Across the U.S.

ROCKVILLE, Md., June 18, 2020 /PRNewswire/ -- Choice Hotels International, Inc. (NYSE: CHH), one of the world's largest lodging franchisors, today unveiled a new, multi-channel, national advertising campaign that speaks directly to travelers who are excited to get back on the road again. More than two-thirds of consumers miss traveling and can't wait to hit the road, while one in four Americans are already planning a future vacation, according to the U.S. Travel Association.

"Many travelers are looking to reconnect with family and friends, get outdoors and enjoy our nation's beautiful national parks, rivers, lakes and beaches, and explore other local attractions," said Patrick Pacious, president and chief executive officer, Choice Hotels. "We also know they are looking for hotel brands they know and trust as they get back on the road, and Choice's new ad campaign reminds our guests that we're ready when they are to welcome them with a wide variety of hotel options, both at the right price point and located near hundreds of desirable destinations nationwide."

The campaign celebrates the return to travel, featuring unique scenery, landscapes, architecture and other familiar destinations across the United States, seen from the perspective of travelers on a road trip. Set to the tune of the iconic, "On the Road Again," it also generates the nostalgia associated with the freedom of the open road. The ads, created by Choice's creative agency-of-record, North Carolina-based McKinney, will air across national markets and a diverse range of digital channels. The campaign will also encourage travelers to share their road trip adventures using the hashtag #OnTheRoadAgain across social media.

"Guests are at the center of everything we do, and we know many people are looking to take shorter trips, often closer to home, as they return to travel," said Robert McDowell, chief commercial officer, Choice Hotels. "With this insight, our ads intentionally spotlight drive-to destinations where guests can reconnect with family and friends at one of our nearly 6,000 hotels across the country. The campaign reinforces the message that wherever they're headed, whether it's a family road trip to a national park or a weekend getaway to a nearby city, there's a Choice hotel ready to welcome them along the way."
